MEXICO FUN FACTS

Chocolate, chilles, and corn all originally come from Mexico. Hot chocolate was even considered a sacred drink by the Aztecs.

The most popular sport is soccer, called football in Mexico.

One of the most important holidays in Mexico is "Dia de los Muertos" or "Day of the Dead." It is celebrated on the first two days of November. Although it sounds like it's about death, it's a giant celebration filled with dancing, music, and decorations to celebrate the lives of loved ones who have passed away.

Mexico has the most reptile species in the world and the second most mammal species in the world. There are more than 700 reptile species and 430 mammal species.
