BRAZIL FUN FACTS

The main agricultural products of Brazil include coffee, soybeans, wheat, corn and sugar cane. Brazil is the world's largest exporter of coffee, soybean and beef.

Brazil's national animal is the jaguar. The Amazon, rivers, and Brazilian coast are home to toucans, parrots, armadillos, anacondas, sloths, and many special types of fish.

Every year, Brazil has a huge party called "Carnival" that takes place right before lent. Carnival lasts 7 days, and people create elaborate costumes and masks to wear to the festivities.
